ANSWERS SENT OUT

Important Diplomatic Movement on Part of the United States.

THROWS ITS HAND OPEN

The Administration Discloses Fully Its Purposes Concerning Present Chinese Entanglement.

An Important Phase of the International Crises Closed by This Government.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The United States government has made full and complete answers to the various important inquiries that have been addressed to it by the powers relative to the Chinese trouble. Moreover, it has gone farther and has made a disclosure of all of its purposes and, as a member of the administration puts it, has thrown its hand open on the table. Late yesterday afternoon minister Wu called by appointment upon Acting Secretary Hill and was handed a memorandum embodying the response of the United States government to the request of Prince Ching that Mr. Conger or some other person be immediately empowered to begin negotiations with the Chinese authorities for a final settlement. The minister came away with a dissatisfied expression upon his face. Next came M. Thibaut, the French charge. A few minutes' conversation sufficed to impart to him orally an answer to his own verbal inquiry.

Then Baron Sternberg, the German charge, who had been notified of the readiness of the state department to make answer to the German note, called and was given that answer. He hastened away to cable it to his government. The department then sent the answer to the Russian inquiry forwarded by messenger and wired cablegrams containing the substance of the answers to its diplomatic representative abroad. Thus closed one of the most interesting phases of the Chinese entanglement.

The state department absolutely refuses to make any statement as to the nature of the answers, taking the ground that to do so would be a violation of diplomatic proprieties. However, as it was calculated that all of these answers will have reached their destinations abroad by tonight, it was promised that the text of the communications should be given to the press this evening. The ministers and charges who received the messages here adopted the same secretive attitude. The president himself, it seems, had given instructions that every effort should be made to maintain secrecy in this matter until the official disclosure.

With all this, it is known that the German proposal that negotiations with China be deferred until the Chinese responsible for the Pekin outrages have been surrendered to the allies, has failed of approval by our government. The declaration has been conveyed in a manner that cannot give offense, but it is believed that the United States government cannot recognize the principle that a country may be called upon to surrender its own citizens to a foreign power for punishment. The government does not relinquish the idea of the ultimate punishment of the offenders when they are properly identified, but it does not believe that the pursuit of this object should put a stop to all negotiations.

One fact concerning the answers of the United States, learned officially, is that they contain no new propositions.

A Ray of Light

For woman's guidance is found in the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures female weakness and the diseases which darken the lives of so many women with suffering and sorrow. That ray of light has penetrated many darkened chambers where women moaned in misery, and has guided them out to health and happiness. "Favorite Prescription" is not a tonic, not a palliative, but a positive cure for the diseases which are peculiar to women. It gives vigor and vitality. It banishes nervousness, headache, and all the aches which come from a diseased condition of the womanly organs. A temperance medicine, it contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I was troubled for three years with ulceration and female weakness and my doctor gave me but little relief," writes Mrs. Lulu Hunter of Allenton, St. Louis, Mo. "I saw an advertisement in the paper of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I began the use of it about a year ago. I took five bottles of it, and one bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and my health is better now than it was for years. I have also recommended this medicine to some of my friends, who suffered from female weakness, and good results have followed."

FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Roving Chinese Court.
Shanghai, Sept. 22.—The Chinese court by an imperial edict, issued Sept. 8, was removed from Tai Yen Fu to Shan Fu. The military authorities in Pekin all agree that punitive expeditions to Shan Si and Manchuria have become necessary because of the wholesale murders of missionaries and Dr. Mumm von Schwartzstein (German minister to China) urges this course.

Li Hung Chang at Tientsin.
Tientsin, Thursday, Sept. 20, via Shanghai, Sept. 22.—Li Hung Chang has arrived here and is domiciled in his own yamen, under a Cossack guard. His reception here was a repetition of his reception at Tong Ku, only the Russian and Japanese officers calling on him, those of the other nations not taking part in it.

THE KAISER'S MOTIVES

London Declares That Germany Was Playing For Time.

London, Sept. 22.—It seems to be generally believed throughout Europe that Germany purposely proposed her demand that the anti-foreign leaders should be surrendered before negotiations were commenced with a view of delaying any general acceptance of her proposal until Field Marshal Count von Waldersee should arrive at Pekin. A dispatch from Washington asserts that the United States government has politely declined to agree to Germany's proposal on this very ground.

In any event, with Count von Waldersee journeying northward and Li Hung Chang conducting negotiations from Tientsin, matters must soon reach a crisis. The manner of Earl Li's reception seems to confirm the suspicions existing in Shanghai regarding his close understanding with Russia. About 4,000 Russian troops and all the principal Russian officers met him at Chung Liang Chen, half way to Tientsin. A long conference was held at which no representatives of any other power was present. This remarkable friendship exists at a time when two continents are ringing with the story of massacres by the Russians in Amur.

A Moscow correspondent reverting to the subject of the massacre today says: "From a recent visitor to the Amur region, I learn that massacres are the order of the day with the troops that are overrunning Manchuria. The orders are issued by Gen. Grodekoff. But it is quite certain that Emperor Nicholas must be ignorant of their nature. My informant has seen a series of telegrams from one Manchuria commander, every one of which beseeches that he be allowed to spare peaceable citizens, but the Russian herd is still of a truly Oriental type. The same correspondent asserts that troops by the wholesale continue to pour into Manchuria."

Gen. Wilson Takes Pei Ta Chu.
Pekin, Sept. 17, via Taku, Sept. 22.—Gen. James H. Wilson, the American commander, took Pei Ta Chu this morning. No details of the affair have been learned, but the British officials have received a dispatch announcing that "the temples were taken according to arrangements." It is said that Gen. Wilson will move on San Kia Tien and destroy the Chinese arsenal at that place.

Centenarian Dead.

Barry, Ills., Sept. 22.—Mrs. Jane Boothie, the oldest resident of Pike county, is dead at her home in this city. She was 100 years of age.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Orders for railroad equipment for September are expected to include fully $5,000 freight cars.

L. J. Kahler, a young balloonist, is dead at St. Joseph, Mich., from injuries received by a fall from his balloon while making an ascension.

The Columbus and St. Mary's division of the Detroit, Lima Northern road has been sold for $200,000 to W. Ferrag, Jr., and associates.

The veteran steamboat owner, Captain John K. Booth, is dead at Wheeling, W. Va., from the effects of a fall in the cellar at his home.

A sheriff's posse fired on a crowd of riotous men near Shenandoah, Pa., yesterday afternoon, killing two persons and wounding seven others.

Outside of the anthracite industry enforced idleness of hands is an exception, and even in the Pennsylvania coal region other employers would gladly take on thousands of the more intelligent miners.

The joint meeting of the conference committees of the manufacturers and of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers adjourned again without reaching an agreement on the new wage scale.

The current statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balance, $122,885,040; gold, $74,788,967.

The boy of Frank W. Haines, who died at Wauwatese, Wis., will be buried at Decatur, Ill. He was one of the oldest theater managers in the west, and was known by theatrical people all over the country.

A STRIKE TRAGEDY

First Blood of the Miners' Strike Has Been Shed at Shenandoah.

A POSSE'S HASTY FIRE

Street Rioting at Shenandoah Leads to a Desperate and Bloody Encounter.

Two Are Killed Outright and Many Wounded—The Blood of a Child.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 22.—The tragedy that has been looked for since the coal workers' strike was inaugurated, came suddenly and unexpectedly at Shenandoah yesterday afternoon.

A posse hurriedly gathered together by Sheriff Toole of Schuylkill county, to meet an emergency, was forced to fire on a mob that was threatening workmen on their way home under escort. A man and a little girl were instantly killed and seven others fell more or less seriously wounded. Sheriff Toole lost no time in calling on the commander of the national guard of Pennsylvania to send troops to aid him in keeping the peace. After consultation the state authorities at Harrisburg decided at midnight to send troops to the turbulent region.

The killed: Mike Yuckavage, shot in the eye; a little girl, name unknown, shot in the back of the neck.

Wounded: Edward Coyle, aged about 50 years, bullet wound near the heart. He was sitting on his stoop; Michael Scanlan, shot in the arm; Anthony Skarnazick, shot in left wrist; John Wundkecy, aged 40 years, shot in the hand, married; Peter Stalmocovich, 28 years, shot in the shoulder at the back; Mike Sazitska, shot in left shoulder; Anthony Axalasage, shot in the left side, serious.

Shenandoah's trouble was precipitated by the closing of six collieries there yesterday through the efforts of strike leaders. More closed today as a voluntary act, it is said, on the part of the leading company. This is done at the request of Sheriff Toole who hopes in this manner to avoid further rioting. The outlook, however, is dubious, as the foreigners affected by last evening's happenings are in an ugly mood.

Elsewhere in the strike region everything is quiet, although preparations are making for an outbreak in the Hazleton district and armed sheriffs' deputies are much in evidence there. The Reading company has about discontinued the sale of coal for future delivery and last night's rioting at most certainly means the shutting off of coal production everywhere in the anthracite field, temporarily, at least.

Gen. Gobin has established headquarters here with 2,500 troops, the Fourth, Eighth and Twelfth regiments, battery O of Phoenixville; Governor's troops of Harrisburg, and the third brigade headquarters. Battery O is equipped with Gatling guns and is one of the best drilled organizations in the guard.

MORE TROUBLE FEARED

Suppressed Excitement Apparent in the Hazleton District.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 22.—The belief is general in this district that an outbreak will occur. There is, however, no outward evidence anywhere that such a thing is likely. The feeling is no doubt produced by the disturbances at Shenandoah and the arrival in Hazleton and on the north side of large numbers of deputies who are said to be prepared for any emergency. It is known that all the coal companies in the district have increased the number of watchmen around their collieries and it is known that a small number of deputies have been distributed through the southside by Sheriff Brislin of Carbon county, but nothing much is thought of this.

This city has been unusually quiet although crowds of idle men are congregated on most of the street corners all day long. They give no trouble to the city police force which numbers about eight men.

As to the strike situation itself there is no noticeable change. Both the operators and the strike leaders claim to have made decided gains on their respective sides. For the first time since the strike was inaugurated President Mitchell issued figures showing the number of men idle in each colliery in the Hazleton district. These figures show that out of 17,475 mine operators in the district 13,825 have refused to go to work. Very few operators live in this section, but those operators and officials who could be reached in this vicinity dispute Mr. Mitchell's figures insofar as they relate to their individual collieries.

President Mitchell issued an open letter to the public last night in which he recited the grievances of the miners and the causes thereof and pointed out a way to settle the strike.

Civil Authority Sufficient.

Columbus, O., Sept. 22.—Gov. Nash yesterday afternoon sent a brief reply to the long telegram received from Overseer Piper, of the Dowle church: "I simply said," said the governor, "that I would not call out the state militia unless asked to do so by the local civil authorities in Mansfield. What would be the use of doing so when they could do nothing when there except on the order of civil authorities?"

Marion, Ind., Sept. 22.—Local committees are arranging for the entertainment of the Epworth Leagues of northern Indiana, which begin a three days' convention here Nov. 20. The annual meetings are usually attended by 300 or 400 delegates, representing 250 chapters, and about 14,000 members. The programme committee is arranging to bring some of the most prominent league workers in the country to the meeting. The musical programme will be in charge of Prof. Billhorn of Chicago. Among those who will attend are: The Rev. Dr. Levi Gilbert, editor of the Western Christian Advocate; Dr. Berry, editor of the Epworth Herald; Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, president of the World's Society of Epworth Leagues, and Dr. Thurkfeld, formerly general secretary of the Epworth Leagues.

Bonds Again Rejected.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 22.—Farson, Leach & Co. of Chicago, who recently purchased $195,000 of gravel road bonds in this (Cass) county, at a premium of $4,050, have refused to perfect the deal, and this places the county officials in rather an embarrassing position, as the work of re-advertising will have to be done over. The first time the bonds were declared illegal because only advertised two weeks. The county commissioners then advertised for three weeks, and the bid of the Chicago firm was accepted. This second refusal will necessitate delay in paying for work begun some time ago.

Persistent Firebug.

Greensburg, Ind., Sept. 22.—The barn and contents, valued at $3,500, belonging to Ed Lee of Clarksville, was burned by incendiaryism. The insurance is $1,100. Two attempts to destroy the structure had been previously made, and a watchman was employed. The torch was successfully applied during his temporary absence.

TRADE REVIEW

Coal Miner's Strike Produces Unfavorable Turn in Situation.

New York, Sept. 22.—Broadstreet weekly trade review today says: The unfavorable turn given the general industrial situation by the strike of anthracite coal miners and the possibility of wages disputes in the iron trade with rather less activity in the latter industry, and some increase of weakness in the prices of crude forms have given an appearance of irregularity to the general trade and business situation. On the other hand, the course of staple prices has been very generally upward this week, fall distribution of goods, clothing, hats, and millinery has been of large volume at nearly all markets; there is a decidedly better tone noted in the boot and shoe and kindred trades and the strength of cotton goods, though apparently in excess of that shown by the raw material has been regarded as indicative of confidence on the part of manufacturers. Reports of damage to grain in shock in the northwest, reinforced by northwestern buying at Chicago, furnished the key to the advance of nearly 2 cents in wheat this week, followed by a gain of 20 to 25 cents in flour and of 14 cents in corn. Some of this advance in wheat was afterward lost in realizing.

Business failures for the week in the United States number 183 as against 167 last week, 147 in this week a year ago, 182 in 1898; 237 in 1897 and 821 in 1896.

A French Accession.

Heavy Rains in India.

Calcutta, Sept. 22.—The extraordinary rain fall in northern India has not ceased for four days. Half the city of Calcutta is submerged, and even in the northern part the streets are flooded to the depth of three feet. Many houses have collapsed. It is estimated that 35 inches of rain has fallen in Calcutta.

AN EDITOR SHOOTS

Blood Spilled at Fortville as Result of a Newspaper Article.

A LOCAL BULLY IS SHOT

Editor Pogue of the Fortville Tribune Assaulted For Criticizing a Local "Boo" Gang.

His Assailant, the Leader of the Gang, Met With a Shot in the Neck.

Fortville, Ind., Sept. 22.—Wood Torrence, a local bully, was shot down on Main street last evening by Ora V. Pogue, editor of The Tribune at this place. The trouble started over an article published in this week's Tribune charging Torrence and others with making an assault on Bert Morgan, a negro of Anderson, last Saturday night, which ended in a riot. Torrence, who was the leader of the gang, is seriously wounded, and his injuries may prove fatal.

Monday Mr. Pogue was notified to forbear publishing anything in regard to the affair of Saturday night; instead, he gave it a vigorous 2-column write-up, which precipitated the assault against which he was compelled to defend himself so effectually last night. Mr. Pogue, after the shooting went to Greenfield and surrendered to the authorities.

A certain lawless element has held sway at Fortville for some time, and the majority of the citizens are in full sympathy with Mr. Pogue in his effort to suppress lawlessness.

HIS WINNING WAYS

Man Who Looks Like Bryan Caught the People at South Bend.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 22.—Yesterday was to have been the last of a 3-days' race meeting and horse show, given by Col. H. V. Horton of Washington, D. C., he having interested the leading citizens in the event, and had won the confidence of everyone with his handsome dressing, plausible ways and stylish rig. A warning that came here to the authorities caused a sudden flutter among a swarm of creditors, and, as a result, constables and others swarmed about him and attached his gate receipts and other visible property. Horton escaped by driving over the Michigan line and leaving the livery rig at Niles. The many creditors here are duplicated at Quincy, Ills., Cedar Rapids, Ia., and other points, at the latter place taking in the Commercial club. His real name is said to be Hatch. He strongly resembles Bryan in appearance.

The Brakeman Came Back.

Tipton, Ind., Sept. 22.—Sherman Lindsay, the brakeman who left the switch open which caused the wreck on the Lake Erie and Western railroad at Redkey Sunday night, killing Fireman McClelland and badly injuring Engineer Montague, has returned to Tipton. At the time of the wreck Lindsay said he was afraid of bodily harm by the citizens of Tipton, and has been in hiding. Lindsay says the reason he was unable to close the switch was that a rock had fallen between the rails, thus locking the switch; that he signaled the engineer to stop, and that he is not to blame for the accident.

Perry County Feudists.

St. Croix, Ind., Sept. 22.—As a result of a fierce fight between factions here the body of Robert Knight has been found by his friends, and Sam Conklin, a deaf mute, is dead as the result of wounds received. Two or three others who participated in the fight are not expected to live.

First Sight of a Train.

Franklin, Ind., Sept. 22.—An old woman named Plummer came from her home in Brown county to take the train for Kokomo, where she expected to visit her son. She is 80 years old and never before had seen a railroad train, much less ridden on one.

The Deadly Grade Crossing.

Bedford, Ind., Sept. 22.—A north-bound passenger train on the Monon struck Mrs. Elizabeth Massey, age 55, at the Fifth street crossing yesterday, killing her instantly. She was hard of hearing and was in the act of crossing the track as the train was leaving the city.

Will Offer a Reward.

Monticello, Ind., Sept. 22.—The county commissioners have practically concluded to offer a reward of $500 for the murderer of Will Luse. Sheriff Warner has investigated a number of possible clues, but nothing tangible resulted.

Inspired by Jealousy.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 22.—Jealousy inspired an attack on John Gray by Sherman Baker of the sanitary force, in which Gray's arm was broken with a blow from a club, and he was otherwise badly bruised.

Will Meet in Indianapolis.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 22.—The sovereign grand lodge, I. O. O. F., decided yesterday to hold its next session in Indianapolis. Only one ballot was taken.

WHOLESALE LYNCHING

Louisiana Mob Selects Four Out of Fourteen Negroes and Hang Them.

Ponchatoula, La., Sept. 22.—Sept. 22.—Four negroes were lynched here who were suspected of burglarizing the residence of Henry Hatfield, whose home is in Tangipahoa parish. The victims were: Ishak Rollins, aged 18; Nathaniel Bowman, aged 47; George Bickman, aged 22, and Charles Elliot, aged 20.

It is said there has been an epidemic of burglaries in the lower section of Tangipahoa parish of late. A vigilance committee was long ago formed for the purpose of taking summary action when the opportunity presented itself. The opportunity came when Hatfield reported that his residence had been entered and robbed of $250 in cash. As soon as the facts were known the authorities acted with promptness, arresting 14 suspects. These were confined in the same jail. At once evidences of suppressed excitement were manifested and it was evident that some of the negroes would be severely dealt with. This feeling grew until the doors of the jail were broken open and the four negroes who had been selected by the mob as the most guilty were taken out and hanged to the limbs of a large oak tree which stands near the jail. The people of Ponchatoula, both white and black, deplore the action of the mob and both races in mass meeting yesterday appointed a law and order committee.

Howard Defense Rests.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 22.—The defense rested its testimony in the case of James Howard last yesterday afternoon. Several witnesses for the prosecution were heard in rebuttal and the rebuttal will probably be concluded by this evening. Argument will begin Monday morning, and the case will likely reach the jury sometime Tuesday. Several witnesses were introduced by the defense attacking the character of James Stubblefield, the Clay county ex-sheriff who testified that Howard confided to him that he fired the shot that killed Goebel.

Withdraws From the Field.

Boston, Sept. 22.—The National Party, composed of men who feel that they cannot conscientiously vote for either McKinley or Bryan, at a conference held at Young's hotel yesterday afternoon, abandoned the idea of keeping a presidential ticket in the field and Mr. Archibald M. Howe of this state, who was nominated for vice president in New York on the 5th inst., is expected to follow Senator Caffery of Louisiana, the presidential nominee, in formally withdrawing his candidacy.

Pole-Carew's Advance.

London, Sept. 22.—The war office gave out the following dispatch from Lord Roberts last evening: "Water-valboven, Thursday, Sept. 20.—Pole-Carew reached Koopmuiden yesterday. Practically there was no road and a way had to be cut through jungles intersected by ravines. He captured 38 cars of flour, one car of coffee and 19 damaged engines at Watervalboven."

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

1890:—OPEN THE MILLS.
1900:—KEEP THEM OPEN.

STAND by the stars and stripes.

IT WAS Lincoln who said horses should not be swapped while crossing a stream. This nation is now crossing the Pacific ocean. We would better keep McKinley at the helm.

If a Bryan man tells you that the farmers are no more prosperous than they were four years ago, talk to him about hogs, cattle, sheep, horses, corn, yes, ask him about the value of farm land.

In labor districts the Bryan parties
tell the people they are paying too much for their beef, pork and produce in general. In farming communities they tell the farmer that poverty will overtake him on account of the price of nails. Prices of all commodities are likely to go up and down together.

REMEMBER that the republican party in state and nation is pledged to antitrust legislation. Remember that Nathan Powell is pledged to such legislation. Certainly his pledge is worth as much as that of Francis Marion Griffith who voted against the resolution for an anti-trust amendment to the constitution.

THE Bryan parties are having a hard time swapping paramount issues in the midst of the campaign. It will be difficult to get the people to believe that it is necessary to elect Bryan in order to secure anti-trust legislation.
Republicans believe their candidates will do what they say and republican candidates are all pledged to antitrust legislation.

BRYAN announces that he will not
if elected be a candidate for a second term. Now since McKinley is a candidate for re-election Bryan would leave the impression that only a bad man will ask a second nomination. But in view of the fact that Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and others, who were among the best presidents of this country, each asked and secured a second term. The American people will not be moved by Bryan's demogogy.

THE Springfield (Mo.) Republican
says though Bryan has succeeded Coxey as a calamity howler but there is a difference. Coxey went out at the head of an army of unemployed. They went out on empty stomachs for it was after the McKinley tariff had been repealed and the factories had been closed. There was some excuse for talking calamity then. But Bryan goes about in a Pullman car to talk calamity though he has increased his taxables at the ratio of about 16 to 1
the past three years.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

The McKinley Club held a meeting at the city building last night. There was a good attendance. After business before the club was disposed of, brief talks were made by W. B. Lewis, J. M. Lewis, H. M. Schwing and several other members of the club. Adjourned to meet next Friday evening.

A party of ten or twelve will go to Crothersville tonight to help organize a republican club. The train passing here at 5:40 will stop at Crothersville.
Round trip 50 cents. Get ready and go with the crowd.

John M. Lewis will speak at No. 2 school house, Vernon township, next Tuesday evening. A club will probably be organized at that time. The glee club here should be ready to company the speaker that night.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by
it. Call on W. F. Peter, druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Don't Sling Mud.

Do not lose your head. Talk politics but don't get mad. Then go to A. J. Pellens' drug store and get a trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

CAN'T STICK TO BRYANISM

Indianian Converted by Reviewing His Own False Prophecies.

Cyrus B. Jackman of Angola, Steuben county, confirms the report that he will vote and work for McKinley.
Mr. Jackman cast his presidential vote for Bryan, and two years ago was the Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney in the district of Steuben and DeKalb counties. He stumped the district with Representative Robinson and made a reputation as a forceful speaker. When asked for his reason he said: "I fully intended to vote and work for Bryan this year, and I began to prepare my speeches, but as I studied conditions and recalled the prophecies I had made four years ago I found myself confronted with facts which I could not explain away. In common with other Bryan speakers I had predicted that the gold standard would perpetuate the business depression of Cleveland's administration, and I found that all Bryan had said, and all his speakers said, was wrong. As I studied I found myself more and more embarrassed by facts and conditions, and I finally got mad and said: 'It's no use, I am going to vote for McKinley.' I was forced to the conclusion that Bryan was a false prophet in 1896,
and if wrong then he is wrong now,
and I can't in conscience support him in the light of events I can't avoid the conclusion that the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 would have been a great detriment to the country. And, as for the new issue of imperialism, I believe in my own mind that the 124 years of our history proves there is nothing in that. It is merely a new name for a harmless old thing. I am convinced it is time to stop taking up experiments in government and maintain that which has proved true and helpful. I come of several generations of Democrats, but I am no longer one. I tried to stick to the old party, but it's no use; I can't do it."

"HIS PROPHECY."

Kansas Farmers Asked to Contradict
a Bryan Prediction.

Two hundred local Republican papers in Kansas last week printed in their editorial columns in black-faced type, under the heading, "His Prophecy," this statement made by William J. Bryan in 1896:

"IF MCKINLEY AND THE REPUB-LICAN PARTY ARE SUCCESSFUL AND PUT IN POWER FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS WAGES WILL BE DECREASED. HARD TIMES
WILL COME UPON US AND OVER
THE LAND. THE PRICE OF WHEAT WILL GO DOWN AND THE PRICE OF GOLD WILL GO UP.
MORTGAGES ON OUR HOMES WILL BE FORECLOSED BY THE MONEY LENDERS. SHOPS AND FACORIES WILL CLOSE. WE WILL EXPORT NO GOODS AND
WE WILL IMPORT FROM FOR-EIGN LANDS ALL THE GOODS WE
USE. THUS WILL RUIN, WANT
AND MISERY BE WITH US."

Farmers who have prospered beyond their fondest hopes are asked to verify or to contradict this prediction.

Evidence of Incompetency.

Evidence of Democratic incompetency in public affairs is furnished in large quantities by the Indianapolis administration, at whose head is Tom Taggart as mayor and John W. Kern as city attorney. The latter is the machine-made candidate for governor of Indiana, and the people are entitled to know what he has been doing in a public place. It has been by the advice and with the consent of Kern that the Indianapolis treasury has been emptied, that $680,000 worth of bonds have been issued and that now it is necessary to borrow money from month to month to meet current expenses. Every reckless and extravagant expenditure has resulted from schemes having the indorsement of Kern, and the law has not been infrequently so construed as to promote the raids upon the public funds. Having thoroughly depleted the city's cash receipts, the purpose of the Indianapolis Tammany is to extend its operations to state affairs. Every form of consistency suggests that the people should contrast the Republican management of state affairs with the Democratic wrecking of the capital city. The state administration, by careful management and judicious expenditures, has been able to make vast improvement in benevolent and penal properties without borrowing a dollar.
There has been no issuance of bonds
for any purpose and every bill for current expenses is met promptly. But more than this, since the Republicans have been in charge of state affairs
they have paid off $3,940,000 of state indebtedness. Within the past two years there has been paid $695,000 on old bonds not due for 10 years, on which the interest saving alone has been $280,430. These are facts which appeal to the judgment of the people, and it is knowledge of this that has caused the Democratic organization to attempt in some manner to mitigate the charge of recklessness in Indianapolis.

Where to Put the X.

The safe way to vote in the coming election is to put an X mark inside the circle containing the eagle. That is the sure way of indorsing prosperity, patriotism, protection and progress.

It's Simple Enough.

In his Milwaukee speech Mr. Bryan said, "Our plan is simple." It is merely a ruse-off of 55 cents on the dollar.
Anybody can remember that.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the Grain-o as well as the best coffee I back stumped aching and that my kidneys have not bothered me since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by C. W.

Milhous, the druggist. I had, previous to using them, a feeling of languor which made me tired mornings, my back ached all the time and at times I was very dizzy. After the positive results I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills I have no hesita-

The Saturday Evening Post

For September 29 is a special double number. The plan of the The Saturday Evening Post is to give each week a magazine of the best current literature that will be equal in literary quality and illustration to the monthlies. The cover of this double number is by Gibbs, and is in color. The opening feature is the first installment of Gilbert Parker's new serial, The Lane that Had No Turning. United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, has a brilliant paper on Facing the World at Fifty, in which he marshals an imposing array of successes after the half century mark had been passed. Major James B. Pond contributes two pages of reminiscences of Mark Twain, giving for the first time letters and anecdotes referring to his last lecture tour across the American continent. The short fiction of the number includes complete stories by Ian Maclaren, Lillian Quiller-Couch, Gertrude F. Lynch and Madeline Bridges. Honorable Champ Clark has a lively article on Stumping in Old Missouri. The "Public Occurrences" department tells how, through coal and gold, the United States has captured the supremacy of the world.

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR HAD ALMOST GIVEN UP, BUT WAS BROUGHT BACK TO PERFECT HEALTH BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY. READ HIS EDITORIAL.
From the Times, Hillsville, Va.
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.

What Big "Ads" Prove.

Every large newspaper advertiser has begun in a small way, gradually increasing the amount of his space as he has seen the results. Therefore every large advertisement is a proof that the experienced business man has found the newspaper essential to his success. The head of a great establishment says that when the firm had learned how to produce results "all our profits went into more newspaper advertising, until we became well known to the public." He has never reduced his "ad" space.

August Flowers.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottle free at Peter's drug store.

Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

For quiet meaning and charm there are few writers of short stories superior to Mabel Nelson Thurston, and her tale, called "A Secret Holiday," in the October "New Lippincott" pictures the movements of a humble mind with its simple troubles as few pens have done.

M'KINLEY'S LETTER

It Requires That Bryan Stop Phrase Making.

WHAT WOULD HE HAVE DONE?

Challenge Concerning Correctness of the Philippine Policy.

Definite Questions Raised About the Meeting Which the Nebraskan Will Be Chary In Discussions—Would He Order Home the Troops and Leave the Tagalogs to Self-Destruction?—Everything Dangerous in the Chicago Platform Is Still Dangerous.

President McKinley's letter accepting the Republican nomination is a document which places the Democratic candidate under obligations to stop phrase making and soberly tell what Mr. McKinley should have done, what he himself would have done had he occupied the executive chair, to avoid the present situation in the Philippines and save the country from the menace of imperialism about which he is so much concerned. The president gives all the attention to his paramount issue that he could ask, and gives it in the form of a careful review of events from the beginning of the war with Spain, showing convincingly how every step of the government of necessity followed from what had gone before, and how impossible it was for any administration regardless of national honor and foreign and domestic obligation to do anything different from what was done.

Glibly to the tongue of Mr. Bryan comes the cant about militarism and the conquest of a people struggling to be free. But it is safe to say that he will be as chary about meeting the definite questions raised in Mr. McKinley's letter as he has been about telling whether or not he will at once order home the troops and leave his Tagalog allies to what he says is their rightful freedom or whether or not he will force silver dollars on creditors desiring gold if he is made president. The extended extracts from instructions and correspondence which the president gives show beyond a doubt our absolute good faith in dealing with the Tagalogs and their absolute bad faith in dealing with us. Even before the protocol was signed or Manila was taken they had assumed the attitude of hostility. They were without provocation predisposed to make any accommodation impossible which did not involve, even while we were still engaged in actual hostilities with Spain, the surrender of the islands to them for rule or rapine, a step which we could not have taken without violating our obligations as a civilized power. Then, before the treaty was ratified, while the Bacon resolution, which would have given them what they asked, was still pending, they attacked our troops and plunged us into a struggle to maintain our authority and defend our honor. It is easy to say Dewey should have sailed away, or terms should have been made. But the president shows how at every point any such solution was impossible and sums up with these pointed inquiries: "Would not our adversaries have sent Dewey's fleet to Manila to capture and destroy the Spanish sea power there, or, dispatching it there, would they have withdrawn it after the destruction of the Spanish fleet; and if the latter, whether would they have directed it to sail? Where could it have gone? What port in the Orient was open to it? Do our adversaries condemn the expedition under the command of Gen. Merritt to strengthen Dewey in the distant ocean and assist in our triumph over Spain, with which nation we were at war? Was it not our highest duty to strike Spain at every vulnerable point, that the war might be successfully concluded at the earliest practicable moment?"

"And it is not our duty to protect the lives and property of those who came within our control by the fortunes of war? Could we have come away at any time between May 1, 1898, and the conclusion of peace without a stain upon our good name?" "Could we have come away without dishonor at any time after the ratification of the peace treaty of the senate of the United States?" "There has been no time since the destruction of the enemy's fleet when we could or should have left the Philippine archipelago. After the treaty of peace was ratified no power but congress could surrender our sovereignty or alienate a foot of the territory thus acquired. The congress has not seen fit to do the one or the other, and the president had no authority to do either, if he had been so inclined, which he was not. So long as the sovereignty remains in us it is the duty of the executive, whoever he may be, to uphold that sovereignty and, if it be attacked, to suppress its assailants. Would our political adversaries do less?"

The president gives the larger part of his attention to Mr. Bryan's paramount issue, but he does not neglect other topics. Particularly noticeable is his treatment of the silver question, proving free silver to be the immediate menace which the three parties supporting Mr. Bryan are united to force upon the country. Everything that is dangerous in the Chicago platform is still dangerous, for it has been reaffirmed in soberness and in the face of the teaching of four years. Everybody who was for sound money in 1896 has reason to be for sound money now, and, in spite of all the demagogic outcry about imperialism, no reason to desert the party through which was found safety for the country then, as it can alone be found now.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world. Far sale by C. W. Milhous.

CONNECTED UP AGAIN

Galveston's Railway Bridge Restored and Traffic Is Resumed.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 22.—The contract for clearing the streets has been awarded to Ricker & Lee. They will establish boarding camps on the beach and commence work Monday morning with an army of laborers at $2 per day. Adjt. Gen. Seury of the Texas volunteer guard, has placed his regiment at the service of the city and they will remain here for guard duty and patrol work. No saloons will be permitted to open at present. There will be no impressment of men to work and there is plenty of work for mechanics and laborers.

Mrs. Mussey, vice president of the Red Cross society will leave for Washington Sunday night and will explain to the people of the country what is needed in Galveston. Her idea is that meetings should be held throughout the United States and the needs of Galveston thoroughly explained.

The Galveston bay bridge was completed yesterday and full passenger train service has been resumed by all the lines entering the city via Virginia Point. The Gulf and Interstate railroad which enters via Bolivar Point and Ferry will not be in operation for several days. The five lines which cross the bay bridge operate 30 passenger trains daily and they have an enormous quantity of freight to come in and go out.

Senor Lorente, Mexican consul, has received official advice that the congress of his government has appropriated $30,000 for the relief of Galveston. This act of the sister republic of which Texas was formerly a part, has made a deep impression on the people of Galveston.

The usual work of sanitation, caring for the sick and the disposal of dead bodies is continuing. Large amounts of garbage are being hauled from the city and burned and disinfectants are being distributed.

WAYS OF THE BLUE CRAB.

Some of Its Peculiarities as Observed at New York's Aquarium.

While the blue crab is not commonly thought of as a swimmer and does in fact spend the greater part of its time on the bottom, yet it can very easily sustain itself in the water and swim at a very fair rate of speed. It swims endwise, and when swimming it carries one big claw thrown forward and bent back at the middle joint, making a point projecting at that end of the body, while the other big claw trails straight out astern. If it changes direction, it crooks the claw it had been carrying straight and lets the other go free. If it sustains itself in the water without progressing, it carries its big claws in front of itself as it would naturally do under ordinary circumstances on the bottom, but it has to keep its little claws in motion to sustain itself and in swimming the little claws are kept actively at work. Besides making a good degree of progress through the water in swimming the blue crab can change its course or swim to a higher or lower level with facility. When frightened, the blue crab moves off sideways, but when moving about at home and undisturbed it may move straight forward. Its body may be inclined at any angle to the line of progress, but its motion still be forward, the big claws carried crooked around in front. It may be seen moving thus in one of the larger tanks at the aquarium, in which there are blue crabs, lobsters and other things. The temperature of the water now just suits the crustaceans, and they are very lively. Blue crabs may be seen swimming here, and also walking about, stepping down from stones that are as high as they themselves are wide with perfect dignity, if not grace of manner, and walking or carrying their claws before them.—New York Sun.

How a Chameleon Changes Color.

The chameleon is a little lizard who possesses the wonderful power of changing his color to suit his own convenience. Florida produces several species of these lizards in abundance. This is the process by which the little lizard effects his changes:

Certain colors through the medium of the optic nerve produce a contraction or expansion of the pigment or color cells. The result is a protective tint or one which resembles that upon which the animal is resting. The eye receives the stimulus or impression, which passes from the optic nerve to the sympathetic nerve, so reaching the various series of the lizard's little color cells under the skin.

The pigment cells are distributed all over the body with more or less regularity, and upon their contraction and expansion depends the prevailing color of the animal.

The scientist discovered this by blindfolding a lizard and found that when it could not see the color of the surrounding foliage it ceased to change its own color.—St. Louis Republic.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and B. & C. Draught have done more for me than anything else.
MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the female organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?
